

THE ENVOYS

The Envoys is a Gospel singing group that has been giving concerts throughout the United States and other countries since the late 1960s. They are well known for their rich, four-part harmony. A concert by the Envoys reflects a comfortable balance of humor, inspiration and praise within a framework of traditional, Southern Gospel and Contemporary Gospel music.

Through the years the Envoys have appeared on the 700 Club, the National Quartet Convention and the Grand Ole Opry. In addition, the Envoys have been privileged to share their music at numerous Christian Conferences -- such as Moody Bible Institute Pastors' Conference, Word of Life, Maranatha Bible Conference, Bibletown, Gull Lake Bible Conference and Bradenton Christian Retreat Center.

The Envoys went on tour to Nigeria, West Africa where they had an opportunity to bring Gospel music to thousands of nationals and missionaries in the land. The Envoys are privileged to be used frequently in music ministry by such missions organizations as Society for International Missions (SIM), Walk Through the Bible, and the International Fellowship of Mission Agencies (IFMA).

Group members are Mark Liner- tenor, Ray Peters- lead, Val Cripps - baritone and Phil Felten - bass. Val Cripps and Phil Felten started their music ministry as college roommates at Spring Arbor College in 1965 and have been singing together ever since. Mark joined the Envoys in 2002 and Ray joined the Envoys in 2006. Each of the Envoys has made a personal commitment to Jesus Christ. They are all married, have children and place a high priority on a family that walks with God. Each of the Envoys made a personal commitment of his life to Jesus Christ at a young age.

The word "envoy" means messenger or representative. The purpose of an Envoys concert is to share the message of the Gospel in music. The Envoys share their music in churches of all denominations and sizes as well as camp meetings, denominational annual meetings, missions' conventions, business rallies and television shows.
